NEWS and UPCOMING VIRTUAL EVENTS

Just taking a moment to update NCNE members on our progress toward the development of the new Resilience curriculum we are crafting Memoranda of Understanding with ten scholars drawn for the Research Advisory Network for six hour learning modules comprising an concentration of the most informed, current and forecasted knowledge offered by NCNE thought leaders of nonprofit management.

Since our last newsletter, we welcome to the Research Advisory Network (RAN) Kristina Jaskyte Bahr, Associate Professor, School of Social Work, University of Georgia. The full list can be viewed at https://nationalcne.org/about/ran/

NCNE MEMBERSHIP

NCNE serves as a knowledge center and clearinghouse that brings the expertise of leading researchers and practitioners to the resource-related decisions of nonprofit organizations.

NCNE membership offers exclusive access to current research and resources for nonprofit executives and scholars. Our new e-newsletter will offer summary highlight of new content and news you can use, produced by the NCNE and its partner organizations.

Membership sustains the NCNE and we encourage the sharing of this newsletter to stimulate membership. Feel free to forward this document to endorse others for that purpose.

Passing of Jeffrey L. Brudney

It is with sadness that we share news of the unexpected passing of Jeffrey L Brudney, Betty and Dan Cameron Family Distinguished Professor of Innovation in the Nonprofit Sector University of North Carolina Wilmington Department of Public & International Affairs. Jeffrey is a highly respected scholar and member of the NCNE Research Advisory Network. Over the years he has been a good colleague and friend with whom we have worked closely for over a decade and half.
